The Shoots Competition is an exciting, dynamic annual event spanning three days that highlights the talents and creativity of young digital storytellers in Hawaii. Participants from teachers, to students in Elementary through Highschool engage in a wide range of activities, showcasing their skills in photography, videography, and design through various on-site competitions and guest speakers, workshops and industry professionals.

This event aims to foster and develop the technical abilities, artistic vision, and innovative thinking of young creators, providing them with valuable experience and confidence as they prepare to compete at the national level.

This year we have numerous amazing guest speakers and workshops one being Sydney Agudong featured in the recent Disney Lilo and Stitch Live Action film!

MAUI WAENA IS BACK

The dedicated kids from Maui Waena Intermediate are competing at the fourth Shoots Summit and are working hard, demonstrating their enthusiasm and commitment to media arts.

8th grader Avee Lampitoc (L) is competing in her third year of Shoots. Her classmate, 7th grader Cassie Pagar (R), is competing for the very first time. Both girls have enjoyed meeting new people and learning new techniques from the breakout sessions.

MEET KEVIN MATSUNAGA ★★★★★

Kevin Matsunaga is part of a six-member team that created Shoots Summit, an event to introduce kids to media and education. He originally wanted to be a teacher to inspire young people, but his interest in media grew during his studies. His combined love for teaching and media reflects his goal to help the next generation learn and grow through exciting opportunities.
